BRAND ESSENCE

“You’ve earned this life.
Now live it your way.”

That’s the spirit of Your Life. Your Terms.
It’s not about rebellion. It’s about reclamation. Of routine, health, joy, identity, and time.

Marzi isn’t a platform that tells you what to do. It’s a partner that clears the path so you can walk it with confidence. At your pace, in your style, on your terms.

BRAND PHILOSOPHY

- Choice is the new currency of aging.
- Support should never come at the cost of autonomy.
- Living well means living your way and not society’s idea of “graceful aging.”
- From care to community, it’s time to redefine what “later years” look like.

Marzi makes it easy to take back control: from the big picture to everyday details.

CORE BRAND PILLARS

Aspect	Expression
Tone	Assertive, warm, self-assured
Voice	Encouraging, respectful, purposeful
Style	Straight-talking, quietly confident
Avoid	Infantilization, sentimentality, over-explanation

What are we solving for our audience: Agency

Marzi is ultimately solving for agency: the ability to choose, shape, and live life one’s way. Everything in the brand book points to this: choice, autonomy, dignity, joy. Agency is sharper than “freedom” or “independence” because it’s proactive, and not just absence of constraint.

TAGLINE MANIFESTO

Your Life. Your Terms.

Because this isn't just about living longer. It's about living better with the power to decide what matters, what doesn't, and how your days unfold. Marzi simply exists to help you do that, your way.

One-liners for Use

- You're the decision-maker. We're just your support crew.
- Because choice is not a luxury. It's your right.
- More clarity. Less chaos. Always on your terms.

Marzi isn't just another aging-focused platform. It's a redefinition of what growing older can feel like - calm, in control, and entirely yours.

This tagline "Your Life. Your Terms." is more than just a slogan. It's a promise. It tells users: You don't need permission anymore. You already have it. And Marzi? We're just here to help make it all happen.

ICONOGRAPHY

The icons use a combination of any two colours from the primary and secondary palette to strengthen brand recall.

CHOICE OF IMAGERY

CHOICE OF IMAGERY

Do's

Marzi imagery should always reflect agency, authenticity, and confidence. Photographs must show elders as active decision-makers, engaged in everyday and meaningful moments, whether connecting with others, exploring new experiences, or enjoying time on their own. The tone should be warm, natural, and candid, never staged or clinical. Avoid medical or hospital settings, posed smiles, or visuals that suggest frailty or dependency. Use bright, optimistic compositions that highlight choice, connection, and contemporary living. Images should feel relatable, modern, and full of life. Always reinforcing Your Life. Your Terms.

CHOICE OF IMAGERY

Don'ts

Avoid Over-Editing ❌

Don't use heavy filters, unnatural colors, or excessive retouching that makes images look unrealistic.

Cluttered Backgrounds❌

Dark or Low-Quality Photos❌

Don't use poorly lit, grainy, or pixelated images.

Misaligned Focus ❌

Don't lose focus on the main subject by having distracting elements in the foreground or background.

Negative Image ❌

Dont use the images that appear too perfect or unrealistic can come across as inauthentic.

Dark or Gloomy Images ❌

Don't use the images that evoke negative emotions or are inconsistent with the brand's vibe.

PATTERN

PATTERN

At first glance, they are just two dots lifted from our logo. But together, multiplied, and reimagined, they form the core visual language of Marzi.

The dots are a symbol of agency and choice. Each one representing a moment, a decision, a step taken on your terms. When they come together, they become a pattern of possibilities: no two paths are identical, yet every path is complete.

They are also a nod to connection. Like individuals in a circle, the dots suggest community and belonging, close enough to be together, yet distinct enough to hold their own space.

By weaving these dots into our design system, we remind ourselves and our audience that Marzi is not about conformity. It's about many choices, many lives, many ways of ageing actively. And yet, there is harmony in that diversity. So, the dots are not decoration. They are a visual echo of our promise:Your Life. Your Terms.
